Flatness in the focus

Besides the 2 dimensional representation (see picture, upper part) of the flatness measurement with measurement tools e.g. the z-deformation can be reduced to a grouped area. Using the option “hidden groups translucent” the position of the viewed area in the simulated part remains. (see picture, lower part).